

Thank you, Debbie

Debbie, I hope you enjoy your much deserved retirement. Hope to still see you in the South Jordan eShop. :)—Randi Harmon

Debbie!!! Congrats!!! I am so happy I got to work with you for a few years :) You were always so kind, thoughtful, and positive. Thank you for helping keep the “people” culture at Harmons! You will be missed!—Meg Wight

Oh no. You will be missed by everyone that you have worked with and especially by me. Thank you for all the years you have spent in your career helping to make Harmons remarkable. You are remarkable, too. Love you and I’m wishing you happiness and fun.
—Doreen Harmon

Thank you for making Harmons remarkable for 40 years! We wouldn’t be who we are without you!—LaShelle Cook

You’re awesome!! Remember retirement is about family, so make sure you see those grandbabies as often as you can. On occasion you can see their parents as well. Enjoy Logan, and dont forget to come say hi from time to time.—Brent Wayman

Enjoy life have fun.—Francisco J. Ortega

Debbie, I hope that you enjoy your new adventure in life. It will be so much fun to be closer to your grandbabies. You have always been so nice and kind, it was very much appreciated. Hope the next chapter is filled with happiness for you and your family.
—Terry McDonald

Thank you, and best of luck to you and family.—Mario

Hi Debbie, best wishes to you in enjoying retirement. I really appreciate our friendship and your kindness over the years. I hope you celebrate by doing whatever you like most!
—Justin McFadden

Debbie: Harmons will not be the same without you. It was always a pleasure to talk with you, and you were always willing to help. Thank you! Have fun and enjoy your retirement.
—Kyle Holdaway

Debbie, congrats on your retirement! I know you will enjoy it very much! You are so sweet and I’ve loved working with you. Thanks for being my friend! —Zoe Peterson

You have done so much for Harmons during your 40 years. I can’t tell how much I enjoyed getting to know you the last few years. I sure hope you build amazing memories with your family and grandkids in your next life adventure.—Michael Arbuckle

Debbie, congratulations on your retirement after 40 amazing years at Harmons. It was an honor to work with you at the support office for the past 20 years. You are always the model of efficiency, professionalism and kindness. I never saw you say or do anything mean or condescending to one of our associates or vendors. Stay busy and enjoy your retirement!—Greg Jones

Debbie!! I love you. :-) You were always so sweet to me. Have so much fun and relax. <3
—Brady Harmon

Debbie, I have fond memories of my time with you and the rest of the executive assistants on the fifth floor of the Harmons building. Thank you for your dedication as an assistant to Dean and to Harmons for 40 years. I hope you get to enjoy your retirement and spend all your free time with your grandkids. Much love.—Camilla Clifford

It was so nice to get to know you, even if it was for a short while! Congrats on retiring and good luck.—Tynan Montano

Congrats on your retirement! Thanks for all you have done for Harmons!—Rochelle Allred

It's so crazy that you won't be here at the office. Thanks for always having a smile and nice things to say! You will be missed!—Mindi Gillette

Congratulations on your retirement. Hope you are able to spend tons of time with your grandkids!—Brittney Keachie

Congratulations on your retirement, Debbie!! I hope this new phase in life is filled with great adventures enjoying doing what you love the most!!! You will be missed!!
—Ve Fraga-Chiaramonte

Happy retirement! We will miss seeing you around here!—Melanie Searle

I will miss those dumb blond moments. You always make me laugh. I admire your strength and courage with things life has given you. You were always fun to work with. I will miss you.—Linda Peterson

Hi Debbie, wow where to begin? Well, thank you for being a part of the crazy family! You have been so caring and helpful throughout all these years! Did you start at 15 yrs? ;) We've been through so many things that most wouldn't understand, and that's okay because of the remarkable journey we've traveled together. You've truly made a huge impact on so many and should be very proud! I hope you, Steve, and family have a wonderful life. Don't be a stranger. Love you.—Bob Harmon

Hi Debbie, all the best on the road ahead. Cheers to you.—Joe Hynes

Thank you for all your years of commitment and hard work for Harmons. Enjoy your retirement and good luck in your future endeavors.—Jenny Spencer

It was so great to get to know you over all these years. I have also enjoyed getting to know your husband Steve. I always appreciated your hellos in the morning and helping me whenever it was needed. You were really part of some really great years at Harmons and your contributions will always be appreciated!—Mark Jensen

Congratulations, Debbie. Going to miss our five year reunions! Hope you are enjoying your retirement!—Robert Seegmiller
