Max! Congrats on retiring! I hope you are enjoying your free time! You are so missed here at the Roy store. Thanks for always being there when I needed someone to talk to. And for always being able to make me laugh. And for always dropping little candies on the counter when you were walking by. But mostly just for being you! You are the BEST!!!!

Max, remember the fun we had working together as health and home managers? The Fleming shows, the valley of death and "Do you have a coupon to go with that?" I miss you and Rae. Enjoy your family and retirement. You both earned it.

Maxie, so happy you were able to retire the same time as Rae. Enjoy!!

Max, congratulations on your retirement from Harmons after 42 years. That's amazing! I will always think of you when I think of a grocery manager. I loved spending time with you and Rae on the trip to England, Ireland, and Scotland. Thanks, for all you have done for Harmons, and for never trying to wrestle with me! Best wishes.—Greg Jones

Max, it was a pleasure working with you for the few years we had and I hope you and Rae have a fantastic time together, enjoying your family and grandchildren. I may have to poke my head over your fence when I get done working out at the club and say hi. Again it was a fantastic experience knowing you.—Kent Haslam

Max, I can't believe you are finally getting to retire. I can't tell you how much I have missed working with you! I think my favorite memory of you is when my kids were little and they were convinced that you had a rooster tail because you always had a feather duster tucked in your pocket. I hope you and Rae enjoy your retirement and get to spend a lot of time with your kids and grandkids.—Wendy Clark

Max, thank you, sir, for all your love and care for people and making things better for Harmons and our associates and customers! I appreciate you supporting and frankly putting up with this kid trying to wrangle the hardware and health and home. Let me tell ya, you we're all over it and making things happen. A lot of good times, sir, and I thank you for that! Have a good time and enjoy the people you love. Love you.—Bob Harmon

All the, best Max!—Joe Hynes

In the past 20 years how many times did you have to "talk me off the ledge?" Thanks for your friendship. Enjoy your time away.—Jann Leonard

Congratulations, Max, on your retirement. I'm hoping you and Rae fit in some amazing adventures and we wouldn't mind you including Rhonda and I some time. I would add my favorite adventure with you and Rae but we had so many great ones I'm not sure I have one favorite though driving in Ireland has to be right up there. Enjoy retirement, you deserve it!—Mark Jensen
