

Thank you, Rae

Thanks for all you do!!!—Dakota Acero

Thanks for everything you have had for me. You're a great example to everyone. Best of luck and enjoy your retirement, :-) :-) :-)—Janet Bowen

Rae. You will be missed. I just learned you're retiring. You deserve a good rest and time with your families. Thank you for helping Harmon's grow in a number of our stores and associates. Love you and wishing you rest and happiness.—Doreen Harmon.

Rae, congratulations to you and Max. I am so grateful to have known you and for the opportunities that you gave me when you came to the West store. I will always hold in my memory the respect and kindness you showed for me and my girls at that time. I wish you the very best.—Cindy Ruybal

Thank you for making Harmons remarkable for 43 incredible years! We wouldn't be who we are without you!—LaShelle Cook

I never got to work with you, but I have always admired you. Every single person I have known that worked with you said you were the best store director they ever worked with. That speaks volumes of how amazing you are.—Ron Bevan

I'm so lucky to have had the opportunity to work with you, Rae! You are always a fantastic balance of kind and composed, and energetic and fun. I hope retirement is lovely!
—Sarah Kiel

Congrats on retiring!! I hope you enjoy every minute of your free time now! Thanks for being one of the best store directors I've worked for! Oh, and thanks for hiring me!!!
—Celeste Montoya

Rae! Congratulations on your well-deserved retirement. I wish you loads and loads of great fun in your next adventure. You will be sorely missed.—Lesli Sommerdorf

Rae hired me as a bagger in 1984 at five points. Congratulations on your retirement, it's well deserved.—Steven DeGroot

I sure miss you!! I hope you are doing well and enjoying retirement. Retirement sure looks good! Miss working side by side. Customers ask me all the time, "How is your sister doing?"—Coleen

I am very happy for you, and wish you the best. Enjoy and have lots of fun.
—Francisco J Ortega

Thank you for all you have done. Best wishes.—Mario

Hi Rae! I hope you are enjoying some well-deserved time to do whatever you want to do. We all miss you and I am very grateful for all the years we spent together. I have plenty of openings here so come on back whenever you like, ha ha.—Justin McFadden

Rae, I miss seeing you and Max at the stores and in meetings. I pray the two of you are doing fantastic and enjoying your family and retirement.—Kyle Holdaway

You are an amazing leader, Rae! Thank you for giving all your talents to Harmons and leading the way for women in this industry. <3 Have a blast and relax. Love ya.
—Brady Harmon

Rae is the BEST!! I have worked with her since the Ogden store opened. Great leader but most of all great friend. Best of LUCK in your retirement. Love ya.—Mercedes DeGroot

Rae, I miss you so much already! You are an inspiration to many, especially to women in the grocery industry. Thank you for everything... including teaching me to tie a bow on jam to make it sell during the holidays!—Becky Casanova

Rae, congratulations on your retirement. We will miss you at Harmons. You always make a room happier and more energetic! I will always remember the great trip we had to England, Ireland, and Scotland with you and Max. The adventures we had with the Ogden pharmacy team will never be forgotten. All the best!—Greg Jones

Enjoy your retirement!! Thank you for all your years of commitment to Harmons.
—Jenny Spencer

Rae, it was a pleasure to know you and to be on the same team working for a fantastic company. I learned many things from your example of being a great leader. I truly hope you and Max have many, many years of fun and enjoyment with your family and grandchildren. Thank you.—Kent Haslam

Congrats on your retirement! Thanks for all you have done for Harmons!—Rochelle Allred

Congratulations, Rae, I hope you are enjoying your next adventure in life. We will miss you but you have earned this, so make the best of it and be happy!!—Curtis Hattenbruck

Rae, it was great working with you. Enjoy your retirement.—Cindy Burton

Rae, we had a short time together but you left a lasting impression! I will always remember your awesome attitude, your sense of humor, and your dedication to doing what is right. Thank you!—Mike Bradford

Congrats on your retirement, Rae! It was a pleasure working with you. Your passion is strong, from kickball to cheeseballs! You always took an interest in floral and I appreciate all you have done to help make us successful. I wish you all the best, I'm envious! Enjoy every moment.—Cindy Hatton

Rae, congratulations on finally reaching retirement! You are one of the hardest working women I have had the pleasure of working with, and you deserve some time to relax and enjoy your family.—Wendy Clark

Rae was always so quick to reply to my needs. So detailed, prompt, and efficient. Best store director I ever worked with. If there was an accident in her store she would always gather all the information prior to my asking. I was always thankful if an accident occurred in her store, because I knew I would receive all the information I would need. So lucky to have know Rae and had the pleasure to work with her. Enjoy retirement, make the best of it. Life is too short, do what you love to do.—Linda Peterson

Rae, as I've told you before you gave me a job when I really needed one. I will never forget it. My eight years working for you and alongside you were incredible. Thank you sooooo much. P.S., Yellowstone starts back up Nov. 7.—Anthony Leger

We love you, Rae! Thank you for the smiles, laughs, and memories. Enjoy retirement! —Pou Ahkiong

Hi, Rae. I hope you are enjoying your retirement thus far. Miss seeing you and having many great conversations. Continued best wishes on your retirement. You deserve the best. —Paul Adamson

I've known you, well, frankly almost my whole life with Harmons. Rae, you must have started at 15 years old or something close to that. You have been a special part of our family from the very start! What you achieved is truly remarkable, the very first women store director!! Then you've made all you managed and lead feel great and a part of something amazing, Thank you for that! Really all that truly matters are people, because things/stuff are just that, but relationships are precious. Love you, Rae.—Bob Harmon

Congratulations on retirement, Rae! That is super exciting! Thank you for all your hard work for Harmons the last 43 years! We will miss you!—Cyndell Petroff

Rae, it was a wonderful to work with you. A true leader and friend,—Aaron Smart

Hi Rae, thanks for all of our work together. Wishing you all the best. Happy trails.—Joe Hynes

Thank you for all your years of commitment and hard work for Harmons. Enjoy your retirement and good luck in your future endeavors.—Jenny Spencer

I can't believe you retired and left me here but my turn will come soon! It's amazing how many great trips we were able to take together, South America, Europe, the South, and those great memories will never be forgotten! Last but not least you will always be remembered around Harmons as the store director that made our first small store into something really special. :-)—Mark Jensen

Congratulations Rae! I hope you are enjoying your well-deserved retirement and by the way, thank you for giving me a chance getting my career started with Harmons. Sure going to miss you!—Robert Seegmiller
